Artistic biography

Silvio Centamore was born in Lecco (Italy) in 1984 and began playing the drums when he was 8 years old. At the age of 17 he moved to Milan to study at Centro Professione Musica. From 1999 to 2005 he attended the Civici Corsi di Jazz in Milan, where he studied drums performance with Tony Arco and jazz ensemble with Marco Vaggi, graduating with full marks. He also studied with Bruce Becker, Bob Moses, Dave Weckl, Lenny White and Lele Melotti. In 2021 he graduated from the Como Conservatory of Music.

During those same years he shared the stage with many artists such as Davide Van De Sfroos, Francesco Piu, Tonino Carotone, Eugenio Finardi, Enrico Ruggeri, Alberto Patrucco, Fabrizio Consoli, Franco Cerrri and Andrea Mirò.

Since 2018 he has been an on-demand recording specialist, working both locally as well as on worldwide platforms such as Airgigs and Fiverr. With this activity he has now completed 1724 orders including one or more tracks.

He owns his own recording studio, 'Mordecai Recording House' and has recorded for record companies such as BMG and Universal Music.

He is a music teacher with several schools in Italy and Switzerland.
